"Primetime" is what we call our chapel sessions, so called because they facilitate the primary reason to be at Camp: to worship and learn about Jesus!

JAM stands for "Jesus and Me." A JAM Session is a time for everybody to spend some time alone with God's Word, reading and praying.

Breakouts provide campers with the opportunity to try some classic camp activities like canoeing, the high ropes course, or a crafts project!

Patch Prep is a designated time when campers are encouraged to learn memory verses and earn their Camp patches!

Activities are all-camp games that could be anything from Capture the Flag to Plungerball to Chapel Games! Or maybe it's something new we just whipped up!

During free time, there are many options open to campers, such as archery, the climbing wall, the pool, and Uncle Charley's Country Store.

This is the time when mail and care packages are handed out to campers. Though they should beware: to claim their package, they have to sing a song!

Chat rooms is a time campers can unwind from their busy day and spend some time bonding as a cabin.

At our campfires, campers and counselors sing worship songs and share with one another the stories of God's love and mighty works in their lives.

Cabin devotions provide counselors the opportunity to share some of their favorite verses and discuss any spiritual questions campers may have before everyone goes to bed.
